

1st International Course on Pain Medicine Program at a Glance

	Thursday May 28	Friday May 29	Saturday May 30	Sunday May 31
09.30		Neck and low back pain Chris Wells Liverpool, UK	Headaches Jean Schoenen Liege, Belgium	Cancer Pain Sebastiano Mercadante Palermo, Italy
11.00		Coffee break	Coffee break	Coffee break
11.30		Osteoarthritis Bruce Kidd London, UK	Neuropathic pain Troels S. Jensen Aarhus, Denmark	Urogenital and Pelvic Pain Beverly Collett Leicester, UK
13.00		Sponsored Symposia/ Lunch Break MUNDIPHARMA SYMPOSIUM (Includes light lunch) Integrating Agonists & Antagonists Pain relief whilst counteracting associated constipation	Lunch break
15.00		Fibromyalgia José de Andrés Valencia, Spain	Pain in the elderly Juan Perez Cajaraville Navarra, Spain
16.30		Coffee break	Coffee break
17.00		Workshop * Evaluation of a pain patient José de Andrés Juan Perez Cajaraville	Workshop * Evaluation of a pain patient José de Andrés Juan Perez Cajaraville
18.00	Opening Lecture The Burden of Pain Gerald F. Gebhart , president of IASP, Pittsburgh, USA Lecture will be followed by a cocktail reception

* The Workshops will offer the same content both on Friday and Saturday, and are going to be given simultaneously (with possibility of Spanish session). 30 Person Cap.

In each workshop, participants will learn the main features of chronic pain as well as how to interrogate a patient with chronic pain, how to perform a physical examination, and what complimentary exams may be necessary as well as many other valuable aspect of treating pain.